Description

GeoDB wizard has bad layout (at least in Windows). There is no room for some controls.

History

#1 - 09/25/2012 05:56 PM - Juan Lucas Domínguez

- Status changed from New to Fixed

gvSIG-desktop:r38926

Improved layout of user settings panel in "Add GeoDB layer" wizard.

Test:

- create a view and open the wizard to add a layer from a GeoDB
- In the center/lower part of the wizard you must see something like:

Current projection: EPSG:XXXXX [...]

Those controls are visible when you have selected a table in the table list.

In Windows those controls were never visible sometimes.
