It would be great to know the name of translator in order to include it in the commit message

#3 - 04/03/2012 02:29 PM - Mario Carrera

To update translators easier, we decided to do it only on the website (<https://gvSIG.org/web/community/agradecimientos/traductores/>), and the About links directly to this web page.

We never included the names at the commits in the previous versions.
