Description

Probably due to the native libraries because it not happens in all computers.

In some computers trying to load a jpg in the view or "save view as georeferenced raster" using jpg as format make the program close suddenly.

¿Esto pasa con la 1.12? Antes pasaba, pero ahora no debería.

Yeah, we have tested it and it still happens in some computers. We are not sure which library is causing this problem, so if someone knows, please tell us so we can fix it sooner.
